Régine Sumeire and the Pétale de Rose

Pétale de Rose

The Pétale de Rose was created in 1985 by Régine Sumeire and is considered as the firstly created Provence rosé with pale color.

Régine Sumeire had the idea to vinify red Grenache by pressing in whole-bunch grapes using hydraulic Coquard press from Champagne in order to press very delicately with minimum color extraction.

The resulting juice came with an unusual pale color for that time. The taste was extremely fine and elegant.

This invention launched the trend for premium pale rosé wine back in the 80's.

2017 Vintage – Pale Salmon. Round and lightly smoky with very positive palate and length 16/20 points

*2016 Vintage – Broad and smoky with much, much more flavor than most Provencal rosés.
Substantial with the merest hint of oiliness but not seriously so. Masses to chew on. Broom.
Amazingly long and positive.*
