Régine Sumeire and the Pétale de Rose

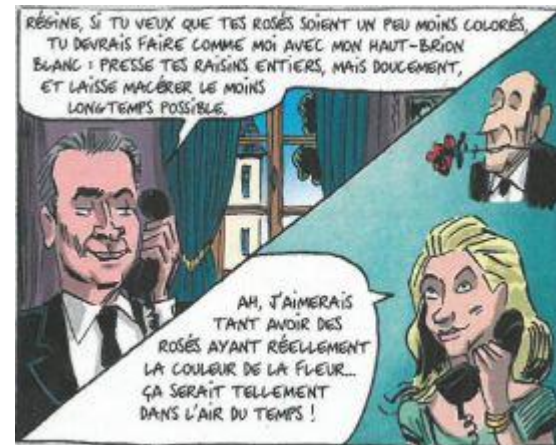

Pétale de Rose

The Pétale de Rose was created in 1985 by Régine Sumeire and is considered as the firstly created Provence rosé with pale color.

Régine Sumeire had the idea to vinify red Grenache by pressing in whole-bunch grapes using hydraulic Coquard press from Champagne in order to press very delicately with minimum color extraction.

The resulting juice came with an unusual pale color for that time. The taste was extremely fine and elegant.

This invention launched the trend for premium pale rosé wine back in the 80's.

2017 Vintage – Pale Salmon. Round and lightly smoky with very positive palate and length 16/20 points

*2016 Vintage – Broad and smoky with much, much more flavor than most Provencal rosés.
Substantial with the merest hint of oiliness but not seriously so. Masses to chew on. Broom.
Amazingly long and positive.*

Château la Tour de l'Evêque Pétale de Rose

Des rosés des Baux-de-Provence à ceux de Bellet, sur la commune de Nice, les profils des vins diffèrent.

Côtes de Provence

Les rosés régionaux ou issus de zones délimitées comme la Sainte-Victoire, Pierrefeu, Notre-Dame des Anges, Fréjus ou La Londe composent 90 % des volumes produits par la région.

92/100 CHATEAU LA TOUR DE L'EVÊQUE Pétale de Rose 2020

Nez sur les fleurs et la garrigue, belle et bonne concentration : le rosé de Régine Sumeire joue toujours cette musique délicate au phrasé haut perché, issu d'un pressurage atypique. Un style parfaitement maîtrisé pour la référence du rosé.
16,50 €// Bouteilles/an : 213 000

91/100 CLOS DE LOURS 2020

Pulpeux mais bien charpenté, le nez, en harmonie avec la bouche, s'équilibre sur une bonne tonicité. Floral
